Student Center – Harry’s Event Staff Job Description

Title: Harry’s Event Staff

Supervisor: Assistant Director of Student Programs & Engagement

Pay Rate: $12.75 / Hour

Position Summary:

The Harry’s Event Staff provides a safe and secure environment for campus events, specifically events occurring in Harry’s, the Pub located in the Student Center, on nights and weekends. Additionally, Harry’s Event Staff also assist with staffing student organization party events requiring additional security. Staff members are trained to be able to check IDs and wristband guests who are of legal drinking age. Harry’s Event Staff will enforce university guest policies at all events and oversee crowd control. Staff work in conjunction with event organizers, Building Managers, Harry’s Managers, University Police, and professional staff in attendance at student organization events and within Harry’s.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee the operations and logistics of Harry’s during hours of operation (5:00 PM until the Student Center closes) including managing music, TVs, and events and activities.
- Check valid government-issued IDs and provide wristbands to who are guests 21+ and wish to drink alcohol in Harry’s.
- Monitor guests within Harry’s during hours of alcohol service and ensure that all guests drinking alcohol have the correct wristband, indicating they are of legal drinking age.
- Enforce event/venue capacity and crowd control in Harry’s.
- Provide assistance to Harry’s Managers for occasional event setups as needed.
- Assist in closing late night food service lines and help Building Managers to close the Student Center at the end of the night.
- Assist with safety and security during occasional student organizations events taking place outside of Harry’s, including checking IDs, providing wristbands to guests 21+, enforcing use of wristbands, and maintaining capacity and crowd control.
- Enforce Bentley policies, SP&E guest policies, and legal drinking age restrictions at all times, including within Harry’s and at student organization events.
- Other duties as assigned by the Student Programs & Engagement Professional Staff.
